

Château Anthonic

2010

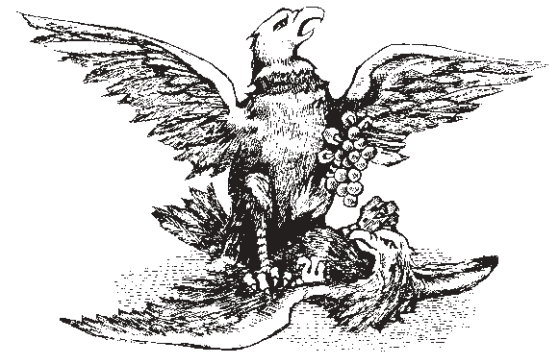

MOULIS-EN-MÉDOC

« The 2010 Anthonic has a delightful bouquet with ripe black cherries and boysenberry fruit, well-integrated oak and fine delineation. The palate is medium-bodied and rounded in the month – quite plump and generous with a smooth silky finish. This is an impressive Anthonic that has the substance to age well. »

◀◀ My top three :

Jean-Baptiste Cordonnier's Anthonic has been producing excellent wines for many years: the 2010 is no exception. It has black fruits aromas, a concentrated, fresh and elegant palate, and exemplary length. ▶▶
