

Château Anthonic

2020

MOULIS-EN-MÉDOC

Lots of spices, such as pepper and cloves with blackberries and currants.

It's medium-bodied with a solid core of fruit and silky tannins.

JAMES SUCKLING, June 2021

Château Anthonic

2020

MOULIS-EN-MÉDOC

Dark purple colour with violet hue and almost black core.

Elegant nose with blueberries and hints of blackberries, mild spices in the background.

On the palate well balanced with ripe tannins and fine acidity, medium bodied with good mid palate and very good length.

MARKUS DEL MONEGO, May 2021

Château Anthonic

2020

MOULIS-EN-MÉDOC

Light – at times almost citric – aromas that include blueberries and mocha.

An easy drinking wine with silky acidity and quiet tannins.

TOM MULLEN for Forbes and Vino Voices

Château Anthonic

2020

MOULIS-EN-MÉDOC

An impressive Moulis, the 2020 Château Anthonic offers bright, clean red and blue fruits as well as notes of cedar, spice, and loamy earth.

Medium-bodied on the palate, it's all about charm and texture, even if there's a chewiness in the tannins.
